

BIO – Corporal Timothy James William Smith

Corporal Tim Smith was born at Sandy Point, Shelburne County, NS, and enrolled with the CF in Oct 78.

Corporal Smith then spent the next 23 years with the Navy, as a Weapons Tech, retiring as a Petty Officer 2 in 2001. He transferred to the Supplementary Holding Reserve and then transferred over to 144 AEF Pictou, in March 2003 as a Plumbing and Heating Technician, relinquishing his rank to the rank of Corporal.

After completing his apprenticeship training at CFB Gagetown in Jul 2005, Cpl Smith was employed at 144 Airfield Engineering Flight on numerous community projects.

Corporal Tim Smith lives in Brookfield with his wife, Cindy and his children, Timothy, Travis and Jacob.

Chimo!!