

Retirement

WO A.M. Segall

WO Segall joined the CAF in January 1994 after three years as a reservist. After enrollment he was stationed as an Infantryman with the 2nd Battalion Princess Patricia's Light Infantry. Soon after he became a member of the Canadian Airborne Regiment. During that time he deployed on two separate occasions to Bosnia-Herzegovina.

He took a short time away from the military between October 2000 and September 2001. He returned as a Refrigeration Mechanical Technician and completed QL3 training in Aug 2002, and took a posting to Edmonton. During that posting he deployed to the Golan Heights.

After Edmonton he spent a short time in Comox in 2009, and deployed to Afghanistan that same year. Upon returning from Afghanistan he was posted to Trenton in 2010 and then took what would be his last posting to Esquimalt in 2015.

After 27 years of service to Canada and the Canadian Armed Forces, WO Segall will be retire on 15 Sep 19. A DWD will be taking place at the 4 Mile House in Victoria, BC, on 13 Sep 13.
